read according to which the appointment and pay of such officers as the Personal Assistant to Councillor and the Private Secretary to the Dewan are regulated, the Government consider that these officers should have no claim to any special promotion in the service on the ground that they have been selected on personal grounds to serve individual Dewans and Councillors as Private Secretaries or Personal Assistants and that they should revert to their original appointments in the service whenever their special appointments cease. The Government resolve therefore to prescribe the following rule on the lines of article 83 of the British Indian Civil Service Regulations and to direct its insertion as Article 58 A of Mysore Service Regulations.

" 58 A. An officer already in the service of Government appointed to be Private Secretary to the Dewan or Personal Assistant to a Councillor is, while so employed, entitled to a local allowance of Rs. 50 a month in addition to the salary to which he would but for his appointment as Private Secretary or Personal Assistant be entitled. Provided that in any case the total emoluments (including the local allowance of Rs. 50) of the officer shall not exceed Rs300 a month in the case of a Private Secretary to the Dewan or Rs. 150 in the case of a Personal Assistant to a Councillor, provided however that the limit of Rs300 shall not apply to a permanent Assistant Commissioner or Amildar appointed as Private Secretary to the Dewan or Personal Assistant to Councillor respectively.

" During an Officer's tenure as Private Secretary to the Dewan or Personal Assistant to a Councillor, his place on the establishment of Government to which he is attached must not be permanently filled up".

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Financial (General Finance), dated 26th February 1912.

READ AGAIN—

(1) Government Order No. 1804, dated the 4th August 1896, fixing the pay of the Personal Clerks of Councillors at Rs. 100—25—150.

(2) Government Order No. 1249—Mis. 251, dated 22nd July 1899, directing that the Personal Clerks of Councillors will be designated as Personal Assistants, that they will be graded with Amildars on attaining the maximum pay of Rs. 150 per mensem and that they will be seconded in the list of Amildars during their employment as Personal Assistants to Councillors.

(3) Government Order No. J., dated Mysore, 27th June 1904, directing that when an officer, not being of the rank of an Assistant Commissioner or Extra Assistant Commissioner, is appointed permanently to the post of Private Secretary to the Dewan, he should be graded at once as an Extra Assistant Commissioner and placed in the scale of Rs. 300—40—500.

(4) Notification No. 7017 and Endorsement No. 7018, dated 25th April 1906, appointing Mr. R. Nanasami Rao as Private Secretary to the Dewan and Extra Assistant Commissioner, 5th class, and sanctioning an allowance of Rs. 50 per mensem during the period he occupies the position of Private Secretary to the Dewan.

(5) Para XIV of Government Order No. 8139—G. M. 12-06-68, dated 27th June 1907, including the office of Private Secretary to the Dewan in the cadre of Assistant Commissioners.

No. Fl. 3470—G. F. 388-11-1, dated Bangalore, 26th February 1912.

Order thereon.—The attention of Government having been directed to the advisability of modifying the system prescribed in the orders above read, according to which the appointment and pay of such officers as the Personal Assistant to Councillor and the Private Secretary to the Dewan are regulated, the Government consider that these officers should have no claim to any special promotion in the service on the ground that they have been selected on personal grounds to serve individual Dewans and Councillors as Private Secretaries or Personal Assistants and that they should revert to their original appointments in the service whenever their special appointments cease. The Government resolve therefore to prescribe the following rule on the lines of Article 83 of the British Indian Civil Service Regulations and to direct its insertion as Article 58 A of Mysore Service Regulations:—

"58A. An officer already in the service of Government appointed to be Private Secretary to the Dewan or Personal Assistant to a Councillor is, while so employed, entitled to a local allowance of Rs. 50 a month in addition to the salary to which he would, but for his appointment as Private Secretary or Personal Assistant, be entitled. Provided that in any case the total emoluments (including the local allowance of Rs. 50) of the officer shall not exceed Rs. 300 a month in the case of a Private Secretary to the Dewan or Rs. 150 in the case of a Personal Assistant to a Councillor: provided, however, that the limit of Rs. 300 shall not apply to a permanent Assistant Commissioner or Amildar appointed as Private Secretary to the Dewan or Personal Assistant to Councillor respectively."

"During an officer's tenure as Private Secretary to the Dewan or Personal Assistant to a Councillor, his place on the establishment of Government to which he is attached must not be permanently filled up."

2. The case of existing holders of the appointment of Personal Assistant to a Councillor or Private Secretary to Dewan will be governed by the Government Orders read in the preamble to this Order. The rule, as now sanctioned, will be applicable in respect of officers appointed hereafter.
